Different events organized by cultural forum in the academic year 2014-2015 are as follows:

Freshers Party

Fresher's Party in any college is an event which every student eagerly waits for from their time their classes begin. The fresher's day is celebrated in the department level with the cultural volunteers playing a major role in arrangements. Fresher's day is always filled with excitement, joy, music, enthusiasm, laughter and happiness.

Senior students of MSRCASC welcomed their juniors with a welcome speech and it was followed by performances (dancing and singing) and games. The day helped to allay fears among juniors and develop friendship between seniors and juniors.

Igniz 15 (3rd August 2015 – 6th August 2015)

The simple 'Cultural week with Talent Hunt' that was the usual norm of the college got an added dimension with the inception of a student volunteer committee. A competition was announced to name the mega event and the name that won was 'IGNIZ'. The student volunteers started their work from 3rd August. It marked the beginning of 'Cul-week' as everyone – students and faculty came dressed according to colour codes, looking like one big family.

3rd August and 4th August saw off stage events like banner-making, naming the event, slogan writing, face painting etc.

The on stage events began on 5th August and went on till 6th August.

The day kick started with solo dance followed by group dance which included Hip-Hop and Bollywood dancing. Group dance was followed by beat boxing and solo singing. Group singing caught everyone's attention as students entertained us with lovely synchronized songs. The chief guest for the event was Aishwarya, Kannada actor. Judges for the events were Sharath Kumar, Anirudda S R, and Arvind Balakrishna.

Ganesha Celebrations

Ganesh Chaturthi was celebrated with great pomp and gaiety in our college. The students devoted lot of time in decoration and management of the event. After the Pooja, there was a few devotional performances by the students and Prasadam was distributed. The idol was later immersed in Sankey lake.

Onam

Preparations for Onam celebration is usually lead by the Keralite students. Students got together in ethnic dress and did traditional decorations around the campus. Young ladies looked stunning in their traditional sarees and young men resplendent in their colourful choices of dhotis. The celebration was made even more colourful with song and dance performances.

Ethnic Day

The cultural forum hosted Ethnic day which focused on celebrating different cultures, regions and languages, to showcase the tradition of every student of our college. The students made the day colourful by wearing traditional attire. Fashion show was organized in which the participants walked the ramp in traditional attire and the best pageant was crowned with Mr. Ramaiah and Ms. Ramaiah title.
