Event Report on How to crack interview?

Resource Person: Mrs.Anisha, Placement Co-ordinator, MSRCASC

Venue: Google meet

Date: 21stDecember 2021

Time: 2pm - 4 pm

Number of students: 86

The Department of Commerce had organized a webinar on “How to crack interview?”for 86 students of B. com. The resource person for the session was Mrs. Anisha, Placement Co-ordinator, MSRCASC.

Objective: The objective of the programme was to enable the students clear the interview. It also aims to educate the Do's and Don'ts of interview.

The aim of the webinar was to educate the students and enable them to clear the interview successfully. The speaker focused on providing necessary tips to attend the interview. The session provided insight about the necessary elements to be prepared before attending the interview. This enables the students to confidently present themselves during the interview. Apart from this, communicating effectively is also very important.

The speaker strived to educate the students about the expectations of the interviewer and what exactly the company looks for. The speaker highlighted that confidence level among the students plays a very important role during the interview process. Positive attitude, good and effective communication skills are the added plus points for the interviewer during the process of interview. Communication skills are tested during the process as majority of the rounds are based on the speaking skills like the HR interview and group discussion which focusses on the ability to communicate with the peers.

The speaker also focused on body language to be considered during the interview. As maintaining proper eye contact and proper etiquette plays a very significant role in order to attract the interviewer. The interviewer observes the body language of the candidate right from the entry of the candidate to the interview panel to the final stage of the interview.

Further, the session also gave clarity about the importance of aptitude test. Usage of quick problem solving methods enables one to solve the aptitude within the given time frame. Apart from these, technical ability also plays a significant role in clearing an interview. Further, there are other prerequisites required to be maintained during the interview process. Effective preparation for the interview is essential. Understanding the company, its history, working, areas of working, management etc is vital before the interview. A basis about the understanding about the company is one of the major steps. Understanding the job role and preparing for the interview based on that plays a significant role. Knowledge with regard to the job role is utmost essential to crack the interview. The session also strived to educate the students about the Do's and Don'ts in an interview process.

OUTCOME:

The outcome of the program was that after attending the program students were aware about the process of the interview. This enabled them to work on areas where more concentration to be provided. Apart from these, the students were clear about the Do's and Don'ts in an interview process.
