Objective of the program: To understand the Cyber Laws in India in context of Data Privacy and Cyber Security as well as the upcoming new laws on Data Privacy.

The program was organized on the occasion of “INTERNATIONAL DATA PRIVACY DAY”. The speaker for the program was Dr. Anita A Patil, Associate Professor, Ramaiah College of Law, Bengaluru. Program was very interactive with a PowerPoint presentation and everyone were excited in knowing something new. Teachers also participated in the program. We were made aware about the importance of data privacy day. We were made aware about the statistics on the cybercrimes occurring all over the world and the amount of people being affected by these crimes. The information on various actions taken on the illegal cyber activities were explained which helped us in improving our knowledge on cybercrimes.

The speaker informed us about how the technology developed from the year 2000 till date on the cybercrime activities and the enhancement in the digital world to control it. Various online applications such as Online money transactions, online ticket booking, online food delivery and many more are being used in the present world for easy accessibility and to save time. The importance Data privacy and security were explained to be kept in mind while using these applications. Advantages and
