Department of Indian Languages

Report of Add-on Courses 2021-22

Sanskrita Dhara

The Department of Sanskrit Conducts Add-on Courses which is known as Sanskrita Dhara.

It is a short term course for a period of 30 days, which helps the students to learn the language easily. This course is a certificate Course for quick learning.

The career oriented language courses help the students to update themselves and enhance their skills and employ ability quotient.

A language is a means of communication, a medium to understand one another.

Learning the Sanskrit language enhances the creativity of the human brain.

Sanskrit is an ancient language that many believe originated in India, around 3500 years ago. It is an old Indo-Aryan language. Now, it is declared as a classical language which is known for its scientific structure and is in high demand all over the world. It attributes to the rich culture of India. In fact, some of the folk tales, stories of India are in Sanskrit language. William Jones, who translated several books from Sanskrit to English namely Abhijnana Shakuntala, Ritu Samhara (written by Kalidasa in Sanskrit) and Gita Govinda (written by Jayadeva). Also, later translated Manusmriti into English. The German philologist Max Muller also translated Hitopadesha (written by Naranyana Panditha) which is a collection of Indian fables into German.

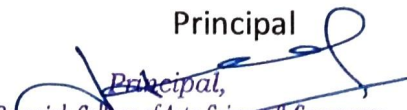

Also, many languages find its root in Sanskrit including Kannada, Hindi, Gujarati, and Bengali etc. Furthermore, many also believe that the Latin language arose from Sanskrit language. Nevertheless, its significance lies in the plethora of literature and other works available in Sanskrit.

The importance of spoken sanskrit course is very much necessary because learner of language is benefited by creativity, appreciation, criticism, justification, social behavior, knowledge of discretion and judgment. Also the learner gets benefit of vocabulary, correct usage of grammar, framing the sentences, synonyms etc.

This course helps students to build leadership qualities, self-confidence, correction of self and society. It teaches law of all social classes which teaches polity and pleasure. Also they learn conversation and life skills. This helps the students in the future to face interviews confidently.

Report of “Kannada - Kannadi” 2021-2022

In every state regional language is given importance. In Karnataka Non-Kannadigas have to learn Kannada Language. The Department of Kannada RCASC conducted Value added Course “Kannada - Kannadi”. These classes are held for the students from other states, and colleagues who completed their degree or Master degree in English medium. This makes the learners easy to have conversation, to understand the language in the day today life. In general, the objective of the course is to facilitate all the students. Normally, more admissions to our college is from Northern part of the country. This course will make them easy to know the language, enhances their vocabulary in Kannada. They are introduced to the vast literature in Kannada from Pampa to the modern poets.

In our College the students for enroll to this course are intimated through the Circulars that they are having this Kannada learning course and the attendance is mandatory. The classes are held after 3.40 pm without disturbing any of their classes.

The introductory Classes start from the alphabet. It will be continued with gunitaksharas, words and sentences. The difference between the Noun and the verb are made known. The importance of cases in framing sentences is taught the learners are made to repeat the words for correct pronunciation. They are made to frame sentences of their own orally, the mistakes are corrected then and there.

They are taught how the language to be used in day to day life. It helps them to meet their daily needs such as names of the vegetables, fruits. The necessary conversation which help them in enquiries in bus-stops, Railway station, Bank etc. are given more of importance.

In the beginning, the learners are taught through action, flash cards, pictures, portraits of Kannada poets etc. They are made to converse with each other on a given topic. They are made to tell small episodes from Ramayana and Mahabharata in Kannada Language. The modern teaching aids like cartoons, animations are used to make them understand more easily and quickly.

The faculties are taught the same at free time, without disturbing their classes. To felicitate them with more of Kannada vocabulary, we request them to talk to each other in Kannada language. The necessary corrections are made then and there.

At the end of the course, certificate is given to each student.

This is one of the best practices in teaching and learning process of Kannada Language. Every year this is followed for the batches of all the students and faculties.
