WASHROOM FACILITIES FOR THE DISABLED IN COLLEGE

At M S Ramaiah College of Arts, Science and Commerce, there is a designated toilet for disabled people. An accessible washroom is designed to accommodate people with physical disabilities.

College has provided special washrooms for the students with disability for girl students in 5th floor washroom and for the boys in the 4th floor. Wide doors are provided to the students for easy accessibility into the washroom and more space is provided for easy transfer to and from the toilet seat. Grab bars are provided in both the washrooms to hold on while using the facilities. Enough room is also given so that the caregiver can also accompany the student with disability.

Wheelchair high sink is also provided in the washrooms for easy access to students who are wheel-chair bound. Adjacent to the toilet seat hand bars are provided so that it becomes easy for the person using it to sit and get up by holding on to the bars. Water jets are also provided for in the washrooms.
