At 10.45 am, we reached KMF, Kormangala, Bangalore and students were shown how the packing of Milk and Ghee happens at KMF.

KMF

The Karnataka Milk Mahamandal (Kahama) successfully managed by the dairy farmers of Karnataka State is one of the top Co-operative Milk Mahamandals in the whole of South India. Among the 16 District Cooperative Milk Unions of the State, the Karnataka Milk Mahamandal has 26.38 lakh milk producers out of more than 15043 milk producers' cooperative societies operating at the rural level. The mission of the Mahamandal is the upliftment of rural areas through dairy development. Due to Kahama's cooperative dairy development programs over the last four decades, the dairy industry in Karnataka state has been able to progress from a situation of milk scarcity to a situation of abundance.

At 11.30 am we left the KMF venue and moved towards the next destination. On the way we stopped for Lunch at 12.45 pm at Sri Nidhi Upachar, Neraluru, Hosur Road. At 1.15 pm, we left towards Srinivas Industry, on the way we visited the beautiful Shree Parshwa Susheel Dhaam Shwetamber Jain Temple on Hosur Road, Bangalore at 1.30 pm, which is known for its great architecture and left the place at 1.45pm.

At 2.15pm we reached Srinivas Industry, which is Automobile spares manufacturing industry, where the students got deep insight about the plant layout, welding business, fabrication of steel and iron and how the small spare parts for automobile industry are manufactured.

At 2.45pm we left Srinivas Industry and reached college at 5.35pm.
