On the occasion of Swachh Bharat Diwas and Gandhi Jayanti, Air Wing NCC, M S Ramaiah College of Arts, Science and Commerce – Autonomous, in association with 1 Kar Air Squadron NCC, Bangalore, conducted a cleanliness and social service activity under the theme “Yuva for Swachh”. The activity focused on time-bound clearing of Cleanliness Target Units (CTUs), cleaning of public spaces and site beautification.

The programme commenced at 0645 hours, with 46 Air Wing cadets of MS Ramaiah College of Arts, Science, and Commerce-Autonomous assembling at Jaya Prakash Narayan Park, Mathikere, Bengaluru. Prior permission for conducting the cleanliness and beautification activity at the park was duly obtained from the concerned BBMP/GBA authorities. The cadets were then divided into different groups and assigned specific areas of the park for cleaning, waste collection, waste segregation and site beautification.

The cadets actively participated in collecting waste, clearing unwanted materials, cleaning the surroundings and improving the overall appearance of the park. The ANO instructed the cadets to separately collect and segregate biodegradable and non-biodegradable waste, and the instructions were followed during the activity. A total of 117 kg of garbage was collected from the park.

Members of the public present at the park also participated in the cleanliness drive and contributed towards cleaning the surroundings. The activity highlighted community participation and the shared responsibility of maintaining clean public spaces.

As part of the awareness initiative, cadets prepared cards and posters carrying messages related to cleanliness, hygiene, waste management and environmental responsibility. The activity also served as practical learning in civic responsibility, discipline, teamwork, leadership and social service.

The initiative concluded with a renewed commitment among the cadets to maintain clean surroundings, inspire others and contribute towards a cleaner, greener and healthier society, reflecting the NCC spirit of “Service Before Self”.
